

What's New in MarkLogic 7

The What's New in MarkLogic 7 delta training course is intended to provide experienced MarkLogic professionals with a deeper look into new MarkLogic 7 features. The training is targeted at a technical audience of Developers and Administrators. This does not replace standard Developer and Administrator training for people new to MarkLogic technology. It is assumed that attendees will have full working knowledge of all concepts in the standard Developer I and Administrator training courses.
